

Viscosity Classification Systems

*This grade comparison is a general guide that applies to viscosity at several different reference temperatures but does not evaluate total lubricant quality. These comparisons are based on a 95 VI product.